Re: Saul Santiago v. J.M. Heaford Limited, et al.
No. 08 Civ. 3005 (PAC)
Our File No: 5530-P

Dear Judge Crotty,

We represent the plaintiff, Saul Santiago with respect to the above referenced matter. An initial conference is scheduled before your Honor on Monday, April 14, 2008 at 3:30 p.m. I am writing to seek an adjournment.

On March 4, 2008, following an attempt to serve plaintiff's complaint on J.M. Heaford, Limited at an address in North Carolina, it was learned the sole viable address for J.M. Heaford, Limited would be in Altrincham, Cheshire, England. Arrangements have been made to properly serve this entity in its home country. We have been advised that service will be complete by April 30, 2008.

In the interim, contact was made with J.M. Heaford, Limited's insurance carrier and assigned counsel. I have been assured that once service is properly made, an answer will be promptly interposed.

In light of the foregoing, wherein one defendant has yet to appear in this matter, I respectfully request that the conference be adjourned to allow sufficient time for all parties to appear and partake in drafting the initial scheduling order.

MEMO ENDORSED

MEMO ENDORSED

I have discussed the foregoing with counsel for J.M. Heaford, Inc. and assigned counsel for J.M. Heaford, Limited, all of whom have agreed to an adjournment with the Court's consent until May 7, May 13 or May 14, 2008. There have been no such previous requests.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Respectfully,

Elina Lecour (2306)
